Navarathri Golu was celebrated in a grand manner organized by women's cell at CPA College, Bodinayakanur from September 22, 2025, to October 3, 2025. This event appears to have involved various members of the college community, President, Vice President, Secretary, Principal, HOD', Staffs and girl students.

Event Highlights:

Inauguration: The event commenced on October 3, 2024, with a grand inauguration ceremony. The lighting of the lamp was done by the principal, and it was followed by a traditional prayer.

Golu Display: Various HODs, staff, and students participated in setting up Golu displays featuring beautiful dolls and figurines. Each department's display showcased the creativity and devotion of the participants.

Cultural Performances: Throughout the nine days, there were cultural performances by students, showcasing traditional music and dance. These performances added a vibrant and festive atmosphere to the event.

Food and Prasadam: Traditional Navarathri special dishes and prasadam were served to all participants and visitors.

Community Involvement: The celebration also included community service initiatives, such as charity drives and donation campaigns.

Conclusion: The Navarathri Golu celebration at CPA College in 2022 was a grand success. It brought together students, staff, and the community, fostering a sense of togetherness and cultural awareness. The event not only celebrated the essence of Navarathri but also promoted unity and tradition within the college.

Acknowledgments: The Women's Cell would like to extend their gratitude to all participants, sponsors, and volunteers who contributed to the success of this event.
