

Benefits of reporting.

(Outside)

1) Investor

Investor who invest a money in the business. They ~~is to~~ wish to know a financial performance and future prospect of a business.

2) Creditor

Creditor ~~are~~ who supply <sup>goods</sup> on credit basic. The banker financial institutions based on the financial performance they provide loan to the company and then can understand liquidity position:

3) Non trading concern :

The non trading concern they need report to understand the utilisation of analysis in effective way. The non trading concern, schools, hospital, trust, with the help of reporting we can understand the utilisation of resources.

4) Customers :

A reporting is customer to establish cost control. The buyer can get the product at a correct price.

5) Researcher :

The researcher can analyse the financial performance of a company through the reporting. With help of reporting, they can know production, sale, asset, liability, expenses, income,

by Government

which include state government and central government for a tax purpose they need reporting.

II. Inside party :

1) owner

who invest money in the business. They wish to know profitability of a business.

2. Management

Normally, worker is done by people. The reporting reveals the efficiency of the worker.

3. Employees

The employees needs the reporting to know about of profitability of company because based on the profitability, they provide bonus, increase to the reports.

price Level Changes.

Changes in the Price

That is inflation range with affect the cost of